
The Interuniversity Study in the Network of Selected Universities in the Czech Republic

Petra Poulova
Hana Sramkova

Introduction

- e-learning
 - a largely discussed
 - highly perspective way of education
- wide range of
 - educational activities
 - information portals
 - virtual pedagogical and student communities

University of Hradec Kralove

- Faculty of Informatics and Management
- the first fully distance courses
 - formed in 1997
 - based upon WWW pages

University of Hradec Kralove

- a wide range of e-learning courses from
 - fully distance applications to just those which
 - support a blended learning method
- implement eLearning into
 - graduate studies as well as
 - life-long education
- more than 150 e-subjects included in curricula

University of Hradec Kralove

- cooperation with another educational institutions
 - University of West Bohemia, Plzen,
 - Faculty of Informatics and Management, UHK
 - Faculty of Management and Economics, Tomas Bata University, Zlín
- project RIUS - Initiation of the Inter-university Study in the Network of Selected Universities in the Czech Republic

RIUS

- the main objective
 - to build a substructure in the framework of selected universities in the Czech Republic
 - to create virtual inter-university space where blended and distance form of study could be run via eLearning

EVENE

- EVENE project
 - a core network of traditional European higher education institutions
 - in the field of Economics and Management study

Virtual Mobility

- Virtual Mobility
 - the use of information and communication technologies
 - to obtain the same benefits as one would have with physical mobility but
 - without the need to travel

Virtual Mobility

- the use of information and communication technologies
- to obtain the same benefits as one would have with physical mobility but
- without the need to travel

Virtual Mobility

- European projects
 - VENUS – Virtual and E-mobility for Networking Universities in Society
 - EVICAB – European Virtual Campus for Biomedical Engineering
 - REVE – Real Virtual Erasmus
 - ...

Virtual Mobility

- a virtual course or seminar
- a virtual study programme
- a virtual students placement
- a virtual support activity to physical exchange

Business Process Model

- flexibility project management
 - work with more versions
 - be ready for unpredictable changes
- process management
 - changes in organizational area
 - changes in the area of information systems and technologies
 - changes in personnel area

Business Process Model

- a way of comprehension of
 - the role personnel
 - working teams
 - organizational units
- Project management made a complex view of the project possible

